

Intermediate Development Outcomes (IDO) titles

1. More resilient livelihoods for vulnerable households in marginal areas.
2. More stable and higher per capita income for intensifiable households
3. Women and children in vulnerable households have year round access to greater quantity and diversity of food sources
4. More sustainable and equitable management of land and water resources in pastoral and agropastoral areas
5. Impact through better functioning markets underpinning intensification of rural livelihoods
6. More integrated, effective and connected service delivery institutions underpinning system intensification
7. Policy reform removing constraints and incentivising rural households to engage in more sustainable practices that intensify and improve resilience